

Privacy Notice

Jetstream Tri Club (Jetstream or the Club) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, or any activities or events organised by Jetstream Tri Club, Jetstream is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What personal data we hold on you

You may give us information about you by completing forms online or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or other media. This includes information you provide when you register with the Club. The information you give us may include your name, date of birth, address, e-mail address, phone number, gender and emergency contact details (Personal Data). We may also ask for relevant health information which is classed as special category personal data.

Why we need your personal data

1) Members

The reason we need your Personal Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide to you the Club activities. Our lawful basis for processing your Membership Data is that we have a contract with you as a member to administer your membership.

The reasons we need to process your data include:

- sharing personal data with club coaches to run training sessions;
- processing of membership applications and payments;
- sharing data with committee members to provide information about club activities, membership renewals or invitations to social events;
- communicating with you about club activities, training and racing

Any special category health data we hold on you is only processed for the purpose of passing health data to coaches to allow the safe running of training sessions. We process this data on the lawful basis of consent. Therefore, we will also need your explicit consent to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

The Club has the following social media pages: Facebook and WhatsApp. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of the Social Media pages, please note that provider of the social media platform(s) have their own privacy policies and that the Club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.

2) Non-Members

We collect Personal Data from non-members who apply to take part in either a one-off activity or event organised by Jetstream Tri Club. This is done either directly with the non-member or through one of our Third Party Service Providers who act as our Data Processor on our behalf. Our lawful basis for processing the data is we have a contract with you to provide the activity or event.

The reasons we need to process your Personal Data include:

- to determine your eligibility for the event;
- to share with club coaches, organising officials or Third Party Suppliers used by Jetstream Tri Club to run the event or activity;
- to communicate with you about the event you are participating in; and
- if you give your consent, to communicate with you about other events and activities that Jetstream Tri Club is organising. In respect of this final point our lawful basis for processing the data is consent.

Any special category health data we hold on you is only processed for the purpose of passing health data to club coaches or officials to allow the safe running of activities or events. We process this data on the lawful basis of consent. Therefore, we will also need your explicit consent to process this data, which we will ask for at the point of collecting it.

Who we share your personal data with

The Club shares your personal data with its contracted service providers, who are used to collect membership data, to book training activities, to collect event registrations or to assist with the delivery of the event entered by the individual. Your personal data will be used and stored in accordance with their privacy notices. The Club does not supply any personal data it holds to any other third party for any other purpose.

How long we hold your personal data

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Members can update their Membership data by logging in to the Club membership database system through the Club web site. Any personal data we hold on you will be destroyed no later than one year after your membership has lapsed. We hold data on non-members for no longer than one year after the event or activity entered by that individual has taken place, unless that non-member has opted-in to our mailing list, in which case the data will be held until the permission is removed and our lawful basis for processing the data is consent.

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you may have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data, including direct marketing; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office about the processing of your personal data.

As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us we may not be able to register or administer your membership.
